For faithless worrying and selfish pride,
 For sins of habit and sins of choice,
 For the evil I have done and the good I have failed to do,
 You should cast me away from your presence forever.
 O Lord, I am sorry for my sins, Forgive me, for Jesus' sake.

Absolution (pronouncement of forgiveness)

M: Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again. In his great mercy, God made us alive in Christ even when we were dead in our sins. Hear the word of Christ through his called servant: I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

First Lesson:

Isaiah 65:17-25

Though there will no peace for the wicked, the Lord promises peace to his saints in the New Jerusalem. Here we will dwell with the Lord forever as he takes joy and delight in us! Effects of sin like death and crying will be “the former things.” They will be long forgotten, counted among the casualties of restoration. In joy will we carry out the activities of faithful living to the glory of our heavenly Companion. This relationship began at our baptism and finishes in eternity.

¹⁷ “See, I will create new heavens and a new earth.

The former things will not be remembered,
 nor will they come to mind.

¹⁸ But be glad and rejoice forever
 in what I will create,

for I will create Jerusalem to be a delight
 and its people a joy.

¹⁹ I will rejoice over Jerusalem
 and take delight in my people;
 the sound of weeping and of crying
 will be heard in it no more.

²⁰ “Never again will there be in it
 an infant who lives but a few days,
 or an old man who does not live out his years;

the one who dies at a hundred will be thought a mere child;

the one who fails to reach a hundred will be considered accursed.

²¹ They will build houses and dwell in them;
 they will plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

²² No longer will they build houses and others live in them,
 or plant and others eat.

For as the days of a tree,
 so will be the days of my people;
 my chosen ones will long enjoy
 the work of their hands.

²³ They will not labor in vain,

nor will they bear children doomed to misfortune;
 for they will be a people blessed by the LORD,
 they and their descendants with them.
 24 Before they call I will answer;
 while they are still speaking I will hear.
 25 The wolf and the lamb will feed together,
 and the lion will eat straw like the ox,
 and dust will be the serpent's food.
 They will neither harm nor destroy on all my holy mountain,"
 says the LORD. (NIV)

C: It is good and right so to do.

M: It is truly good and right that we should at all times and in all places give you thanks, O Lord, holy Father, almighty and everlasting God, through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who has called us to be his own so that we may live under him in his kingdom and serve hi in everlasting righteousness, innocence, and blessedness. Therefore with all the saints on earth and hosts of heaven, we praise your holy name and join their glorious song:

Prayer of Thanksgiving

M: Blessed are you, O Lord of heaven and earth. We praise and thank you for sending your Son, Jesus Christ, and we remember the great acts of love through which he has ransomed us from sin, death, and the devil's power.

By his incarnation, he became one with us.
By his perfect life, he fulfilled your holy will.
By his innocent death, he overcame hell.
By his rising from the grave, he opened heaven.

Invited by your grace and instructed by your Word, we approach your table with repentant and joyful hearts. Strengthen us through Christ's body and blood, and preserve us in the true faith until we feast with him and all his ransomed people in glory everlasting.

C: Amen.

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Words of Institution

M: Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night he was betrayed, took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Second Lesson

Revelation 22:1-5

This lesson serves as a wonderful complement to the lesson from Isaiah, particularly the further description of the New Jerusalem. The vastness of this heavenly city is beyond our comprehension, even us who have been chosen to be its residents. This is our home "forever and ever." But we will not live in suburbs, distanced from him who loves us and calls us by name. No, we who bear his name will serve our Bridegroom in his presence. We will behold his face. And he will invite us to reign alongside him forever.

²² Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, as clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb ² down the middle of the great street of the city. On each side of the river stood the tree of life, bearing twelve crops of fruit, yielding its fruit every month. And the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. ³ No longer will there be any curse. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in the city, and his servants will serve him. ⁴ They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. ⁵ There will be no more night. They will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun, for the Lord God will give them light. And they will reign for ever and ever. (NIV)

Verse of the Day

M: Alleluia. They are before the throne of God and serve him day and night in his temple.

M: The Gospel according to Luke chapter 20.

C: Glory be to you, O Lord.

Gospel:

Luke 20:27-38

Jesus turns the Sadducees' test into a proclamation of resurrection promise. In talking to Moses, the LORD referred to the patriarchs in the present, though they had long been "dead." The saints' relationship with the Lord does not end in death, it continues into eternal life. For we are "God's living children...children of the resurrection."

²⁷ Some of the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Jesus with a question. ²⁸ "Teacher," they said, "Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies and leaves a wife but no children, the man must marry the widow and raise up offspring for his brother. ²⁹ Now there were seven brothers. The first one married a woman and died childless. ³⁰ The second ³¹ and then the third married her, and in the same way the seven died, leaving no children. ³² Finally, the woman died too. ³³ Now then, at the resurrection whose wife will she be, since the seven were married to her?"

³⁴ Jesus replied, "The people of this age marry and are given in marriage. ³⁵ But those who are considered worthy of taking part in the age to come and in the resurrection from the dead will neither marry nor be given in marriage, ³⁶ and they can no longer die; for they are like the angels. They are God's children, since they are children of the resurrection. ³⁷ But in the account of the burning bush, even Moses showed that the dead rise, for he calls the Lord 'the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.'^[Exodus 3:6] ³⁸ He is not the God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive." (NIV)

M: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise be to you, O Christ.

In Memoriam

Choir: For the saints who've gone before, who from their labors rest, we give thanks to you,
 O Lord, for lives of faithfulness.
 They have found their resting place beside the living stream where they gaze upon the face of our Redeemer King.
 You, the gentle Shepherd, hold each within your care, and the saints all feast at the table you prepare.
 We remember those who died, who now before your throne kneel to you, our loving guide, whose grace has called them home.

M: After this I looked and there before me was a great multitude that no one could count,
 from every nation, tribe and language,

C: Standing before the throne and in front of the Lamb.

M: They were wearing white robes and were holding palm branches in their hands. And they cried out in a loud voice:

C: Salvation belongs to our God, who sits on the throne and to the Lamb.

M: I heard a voice from heaven say, "Write: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on."

C: "Yes," says the Spirit, "they will rest from their labor, and their deeds will follow them."

The reading of the names of those members of Morrison Zion called from the church militant to the church

Choir: We in sorrow yearn for those we loved who now are gone.
 Fill us with your sweet repose until we join as one.
 Turn our mourning into song; our grieving, Lord, release.
 For we know it won't be long; we'll meet the saints in peace.
 We rejoice with saints of old who won the well fought fight.
